FOREWORD

Within these pages you will see scenes of yesterday, portraying school life in Red Lion High School, at work and at play, thus making the future citizens of tomorrow. Upon these youth we depend to carry on the democratic principles of this country. May they never fail us.

WE DEDICATE To H. RICHARD DEIHM—In gratitude and appreciation for the time and effort he gives so freely and willingly to promote for us the fine School Band, Orchestra and Glee Club.

WE PRESENT

OUR MASCOT

HIAWATHA

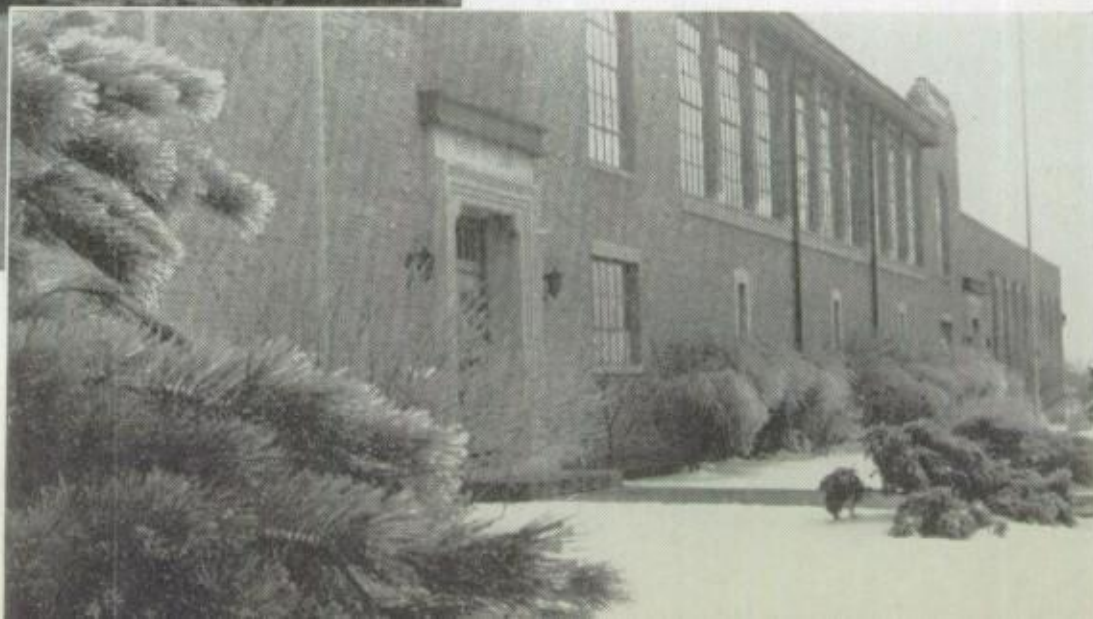

ALMA MATER

Oh, Alma Mater, great and grand,
renowned from sea to sea,
Where e'er thy daughters and sons shall stand, they'll e'er be true to thee.
The sight of thy majestic halls with mottoes over strewn,
The fondest memories recall that we have ever known.

CHORUS

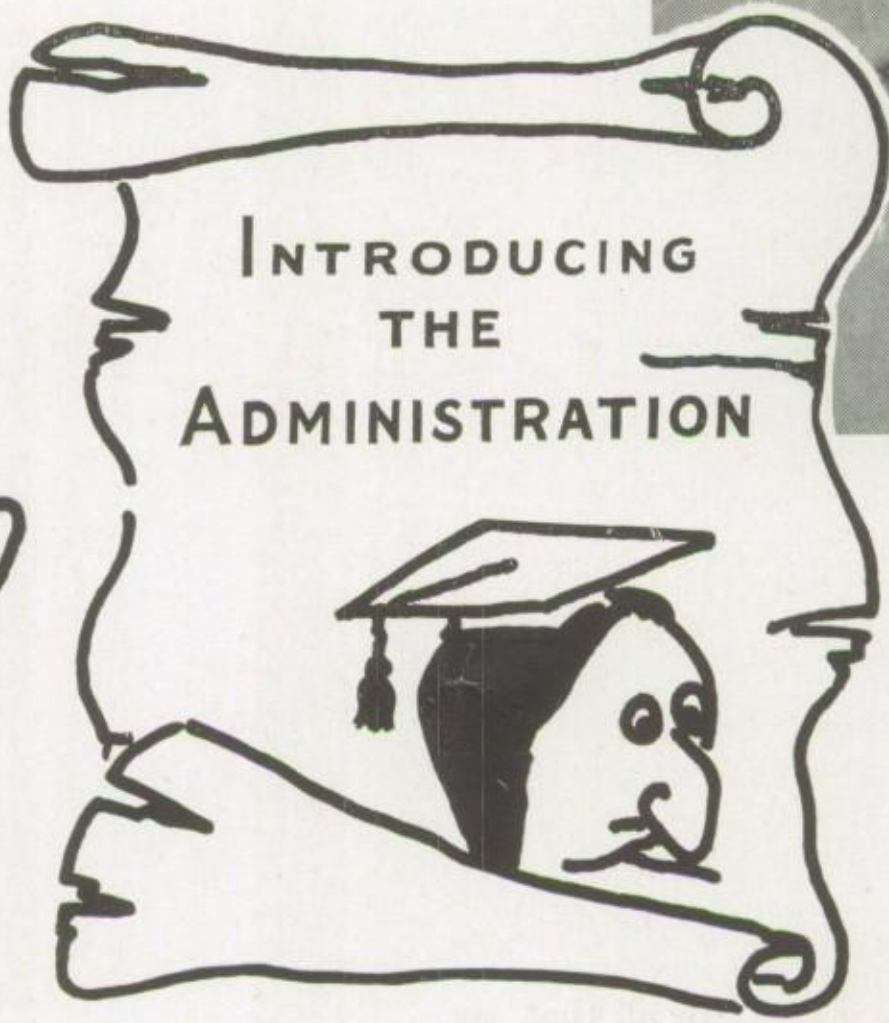

Oh, dear old Red Lion High,
Oh, dear old Red Lion High,
We'll e'er look back to the Gold and Black
Of dear old Red Lion High.

*It's all ours,
The School*

INTRODUCING
ADMINISTRATION

THEY PAVE THE WAY—

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our Board of Education is composed of men engaged in various vocations. The President, the Hon. T. E. Brooks, LL.D., cigar manufacturer; Mr. Thomas Holtzinger, Vice-President, owner and proprietor of Holtzinger's Bakery; Mr. Earl Hartman, Secretary, Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank and Trust Company; Mr. David Fink, A.B., Treasurer, also Treasurer of the Consolidated Tobacco Company; and Mr. William Druck, masonry contractor.

ALBERT G. W. SCHLEGEL, ED.D.
Supervising Principal

Claims no hobbies, but likes to talk on politics, war, economics, education, civic projects, and fish in his spare time.

HARVEY J. BECKER, M.A.
High School Principal

Science teacher, Lion adviser, claims gunning and photography his main diversions. He is an ardent follower of the war news.

OUR FACULTY SHOW US THE WAY TO READ ACCURATELY

DONALD W. KEESEY, B.S., shop and printing instructor. His avocation is hunting, sports, and teaching First Aid.

MARIE KEEPORTS, M.A., teaches English and directs assemblies in the Junior High School. She likes to knit, cook, and listen to music.

REBECCA SMELTZER is Dr. Schlegel's secretary. She enjoys working with young people and likes to travel and read.

BESSIE V. REIVER, M.S., is treasurer of the allied finances. She is an ardent church worker and back yard farmerette.

HELEN E. RHODES, B.S., a commercial instructress enjoys bowling and every high school game finds her an interested fan.

MARGUERITE SHANABROUGH, B.S., Latin and English instructress finds needle work, reading, badminton, and serving as counselor at church camps her favorite pastime.

CLIFFORD S. GUNNETT, B.A., teaches English and coaches dramatics. A fisherman and golfer "That's for me."

CLAIR A. FRITS, M.Ed., teacher of P. O. D., and social studies, and coaches Jr. High basketball. Reading and listening to current news is his desired pastime.

MARY E. FLAHARTY one of the efficient secretaries in the high school office, reads much and likes fattening foods.

JOHN A. SWAGERT, M.Ed., teaches junior high mathematics. He enjoys hiking and visiting the sea shore.

LISTEN INTELLIGENTLY, THINK CLEARLY

SARA L. ENSMINGER, M.A., teaches French classes and also English. She enjoys music, especially vocal, and likes to aid in producing dramatic presentations.

DOROTHY S. BOWERS, M.A., teaches commercial subjects. She likes most outdoor sports such as fishing, hunting, and skiing.

N. EUGENE SHOEMAKER, M.Ed., master of the biology lab and also teacher of civics. State apiary inspection fills all of his spare time.

HILDA KEEPORTS, B.S. Our librarian's favorites are roller skating, cycling, and dancing. For a less strenuous hobby, she knits and reads.

GALEN BAUGHER, B.S., instructs students in social studies, current events, and coaches football. Sports are his favorite interest while his hobby is collecting old books.

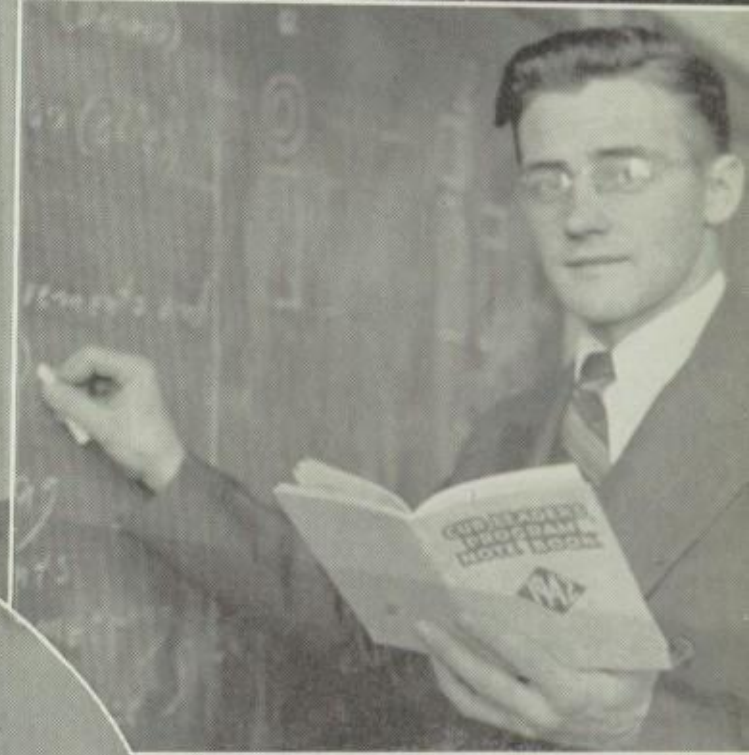

BEULAH M. HALL, M.Ed., dramatic directress and history teacher, participates in sports and is known to be quite a farmerette.

DENNIS E. MYERS, B.S., shop supervisor, likes to hunt small game and fish. He is also chief Cub Scout master for Red Lion.

CHARLES R. NITCHKEY, M.Ed., instructor in physical education and sports. A fisherman and expert on the battle of Gettysburg.

E. LOUISE ROTHERMEL, B.S., has charge of health and physical education for girls. Sports list first as her favorite interests.

DONALD BAKER, B.S., teaches commercial subjects. He is a candid camera fan and keeps up with the current literature.

SPEAK EFFECTIVELY AND SERVE WILLINGLY

HELEN B. SHELLENBERGER, R. N., school nurse enjoys movies, plays, and books, especially biographies and light fiction.

WARD S. YORKS, B.S., one of our well-liked instructors of the manual arts department is now serving as a Sergeant in the United States Army.

LEE H. DIEHL, M.Ed., teacher of geography and coach of tennis, is an excellent weather prognosticator and Red Lion's super fisherman.

KATHYRN JOHNSTON, B.S., art supervisor, likes bowling, reading, painting and sketching.

RAYMOND E. BARNHART, B.S., a member of the science department, also coaches the track team. Stamps are his hobby and they seem to enter into all his interests.

LORIE MATTER, B.A., teaches junior high school social science. As an avocation she hikes, attends concerts, symphonies and movies.

EDGAR C. MOORE, B.A., teaches mathematics and coaches junior high school baseball. During vacation he likes to travel and hike.

MARY E. FARLLING, M.Ed., head of English department, coaches dramatics, and supervises The Hilltop. Her avocation is travel and ambition to become a radio announcer.

E. JANE SCHEIBLE, B.S., teacher of home economics. For relaxation she likes a good novel, while horseback riding provides exercise.

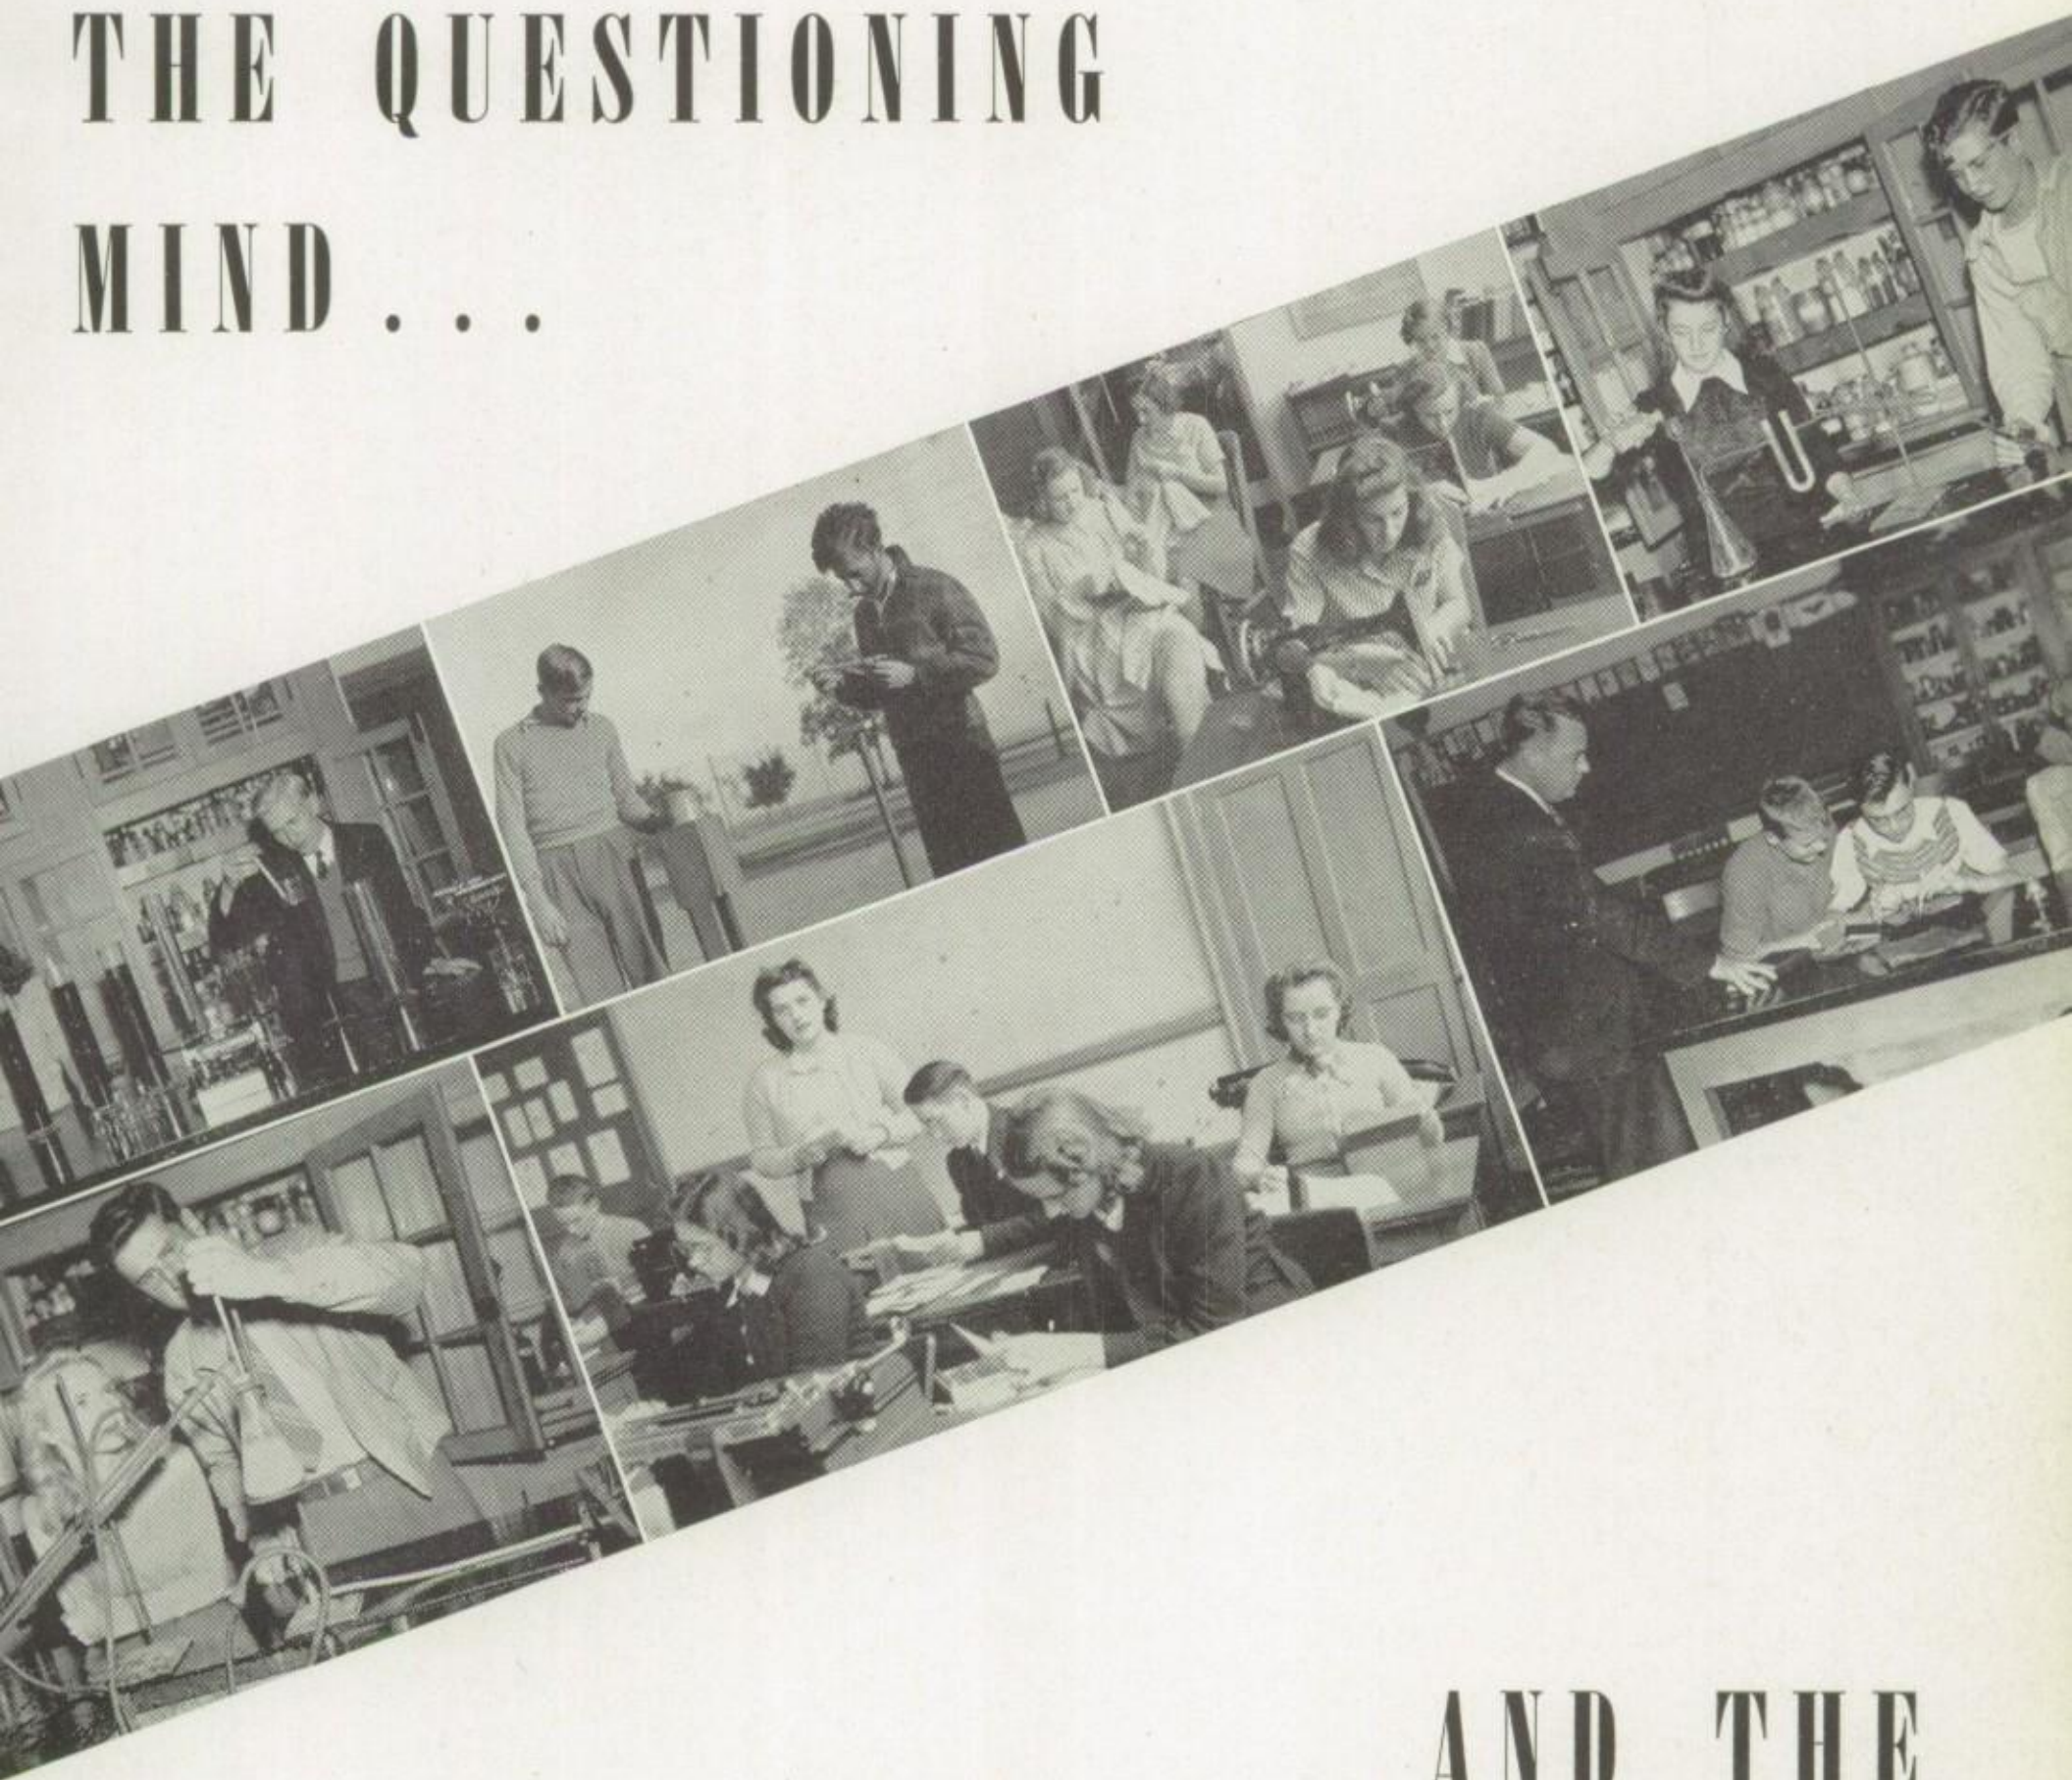

LURENE HENRY, R.D.H., dental hygienist is somewhat of a musician in her own right.

H. RICHARD DIEHM, B.S., music supervisor, and artist in any dance orchestra.

IN CLASSES

THE QUESTIONING MIND . . .

AND THE APPLIED HAND MINGLE

AS OUR FOUR YEARS

As we approach the School
We see "Enter to Learn."
'Tis education we're seeking
As entrance we yearn.
Our goal we long
So much to reach

And four long years
Our instructors do teach.
We've reached this goal
With hearts aflame
As we "Leave to Serve"
And play the game.

MUSIC HATH ITS CHARMS

To those students whose musical talents are vocal rather than instrumental, the glee club provided an opportunity to exercise this ability. Operettas and cantatas are some of the major activities in which this musical organization participates.
